

Fighting violence against women through empathy and the removal of shame

Una stanza tutta per sé (A room of one's own)

2014

The Soroptimist Club of Turin, with the support of the Carabinieri Provincial Command, set up a room at the Turin-Mirafiori police station

2015

National President Leila Picco through an agreement signed between the Italian Soroptimist Union and the General Command of the Carabinieri promoted its development throughout the country.

2020

The protocol with the General Command of the Carabinieri Corps and subsequently with the Anti-Crime Division of the State Police was signed. More than 270 rooms were opened.

2024

The logo was registered

Una stanza tutta per sé (A room of one's own) map

Codice rosa bianca (White rose code)

- 2014: The White Rose Code was setup in Italy, in Tuscany, thanks to Dr. Vittoria Doretti (member of Soroptimist club of Grosseto).
- A special room in the emergency room is dedicated to the Code, where the best conditions for the reception of victims are created.
- In Italy, more than 50 clubs have worked or are working on this project.
- The protocol is operational in 66% of the Italian Emergency rooms.

Sentinelle nelle professioni contro la violenza (Sentinels in the professions against violence)

- The project 'Sentinels in the professions against violence' aims to expand informal networks of help, to spread and promote a different culture and sharing in the widest possible areas
- In this first phase of the project the beauty & wellness and sports sectors are involved.

Thank you

